

Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) – Benefits

Benefits to Partner Institutions

1. Discount on Research Activities

Partner institutions will receive a 10% discount on all in vitro experimental activities conducted at Biocyte Institute of Research and Development, Sangli.

2. Hands-on Training Programs

Students and faculty members will have access to hands-on training sessions on in vivo activities at 10% concessional rates.

3. Quarterly Collaborative Activities

- 1st Quarter: Educational visit to Biocyte Laboratories at minimal cost.
- 2nd Quarter: Demonstration of selected in vitro assay techniques.
- 3rd Quarter: Lecture on Research Methodology conducted by Biocyte research team members.
- 4th Quarter: Expert lecture by Dr. Sandeep B. Patil, focusing on current trends in scientific research.

4. Workshops for Ayurvedic Colleges

Special sessions on standardization and quality control will be organized for Ayurvedic institutions at nominal cost.

5. Provision of Research Kits

Research and practical kits will be provided as part of training and workshop programs at minimal cost.

6. Online Project Guidance Platform

An online platform for project guidance will be made available for Undergraduate (UG) and Postgraduate (PG) research projects, provided free of cost under Biocyte supervision.

7. Support for Needy Students

Special assistance programs for deserving Postgraduate (PG) students will be extended under the Biocyte Foundation to support financially challenged candidates.